

WRI Metadata Workshop

Agenda

September 14th, 2004

9:00 pm – 3:30 pm

CSUSB Campus

The Water Resources Institute invites you to our second regional Metadata Workshop. The morning session will include overview presentations from our Regional Agencies involved in improved geospatial data management efforts. The Afternoon Session will offer participants an opportunity to learn about tools for sharing metadata using ArcGIS and the SANBAG & WRI ArcIMS Metadata Services.

Morning Session: Pfau Library PL013- Basement

9:15 Introduction: Dr. Joe Lovett – Faculty Council Chair- Water Resources Institute (WRI)

9:30 Cameron Brown - San Bernardino Association of Governments (SANBAG) Vision of Data Sharing-

9:45 Rich Mader - Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) Update on State and SCAG Metadata efforts- Data Harvesting trends

10:15 Break

Data sharing Issues and Lessons Learned

10:40 Kevin Viera - Western Riverside Council of Governments (WRCOG) – SCGC- Southern California GIS Council Overview

11:00 Ray Brown- San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District (SBVWD) GPS & CAD metadata methods for CAD/GIS/GPS data users.

11:45 Break for lunch -

Afternoon Session: Pfau Library – Computer Lab- Basement PL045

Hands-on LAB Session: Limited Space- Register Early!

1:00 Lisa Pierce - WRI ArcIMS Metadata Server – Overview Regional Metadata Service methods and Template building

2:00 Break

2:20 Cameron Brown - San Bernardino Association of Governments (SANBAG) Loading Metadata into the ArcIMS Metadata Server

3:15 Next stepsJoin our regional efforts in metadata sharing!

Please RSVP: Linda McCullough, 909-880-7681 lmccullo@csusb.edu

Hands-on LAB Session: 35 Spaces- Register Early!